Costa Blanca South, Torrevieja

Completely renovated single-storey villa with private pool and sunny garden Welcome to a charming detached house in a sunny south-facing location – a home where you can move in immediately and start enjoying life under the Spanish sun. Here you will be greeted by a pleasant single-storey villa of approximately 70 sqm, completely renovated in 2021 with a modern and fresh feel throughout. The home offers two bright bedrooms, a stylish bathroom and a social floor plan where the living room and kitchen flow together in an open and inviting way. Here you will find everything you need for comfortable living all year round - with air conditioning and a heat pump that provides a pleasant climate regardless of the season. Outside, an easy-to-maintain 187 sqm plot awaits with a private garden and an inviting pool that will become the family's natural gathering place on sunny days. The terrace invites you to enjoy barbecue evenings, relaxing moments with a book or breakfast in the morning sun. The house also has a practical storage room and private parking space - everything to make everyday life easy and smooth. This is a perfect home for those looking for a cozy villa with plenty of patio space, ready to move into without having to lift a finger. Welcome home to a quiet and comfortable life in your own green oasis under the sun!
