Distributed over various split levels this unique property is full of character and maintains the rustic Andalusian charm throughout, creating a very welcoming private home. On entering the townhouse to the left you find a cloakroom, followed by a fully fitted kitchen with natural light from the front of the property and an opening hatch into the dining room below. The dining area overlooks the cosy living room which is positioned on a slightly lower level. The room features an open fireplace for those cosy winter evenings. The area is full of natural light thanks to the large patio doors, opening out to a good sized private terrace which is a great space for al-fresco dining. From the entrance level, steps lead up to the master bedroom on the first floor, a good sized room with ample fitted wardrobes and full of natural light, with views over the communal gardens. Further up through the property you find a further 2 double bedrooms one of which is dual aspect. All bedrooms have ample storage and are equipped with air conditioning. Half way up the stairwell you gain access to a second good sized, private terrace with great country and garden views. A perfect setting to sunbathe with privacy and enjoy the warm mediterranean evenings and sunsets. The tranquil area is easily accessible. Within a 10 minute drive you have the bustling town and sweeping coastline of Fuengirola.
