Discover The House of the Pink Lagoon, an exceptional chalet that offers stunning panoramic views of the majestic Pink Lagoon and surrounding mountains. With six spacious bedrooms and five full bathrooms, this property is the perfect place to enjoy with family or friends. Its cozy living-dining room is complemented by a fully equipped kitchen and a convenient laundry room. In the semi-basement you will find generous additional spaces along with two storage rooms ideal for storage needs. Notable features include its bright master bedroom equipped with a jacuzzi-style private bathroom and walk-in closet; additionally, from your attic lounge you can access the solarium where you can appreciate the best of local weather while relaxing under the sun. Each room has built-in wardrobes and installations such as pre-installation for air conditioning and radiators ensuring comfort throughout the year. Located in a quiet area away from urban hustle-bustle, close to health benefits provided by wonderful Laguna Rosa—an ideal zone where quality life is guaranteed thanks to natural surroundings conducive to the healthy breathing air. Take advantage of this unique opportunity: an excellent investment towards a future filled with well-being! Furthermore, it comes with a legally registered license which makes this property not only your dream home but also a perfect option for profitable tourist accommodation. Watch how the sunset falls over the lagoon every afternoon from your windows.
